EISENHOWER

The students at Eisenhower attended an Amelia Earhart assembly.

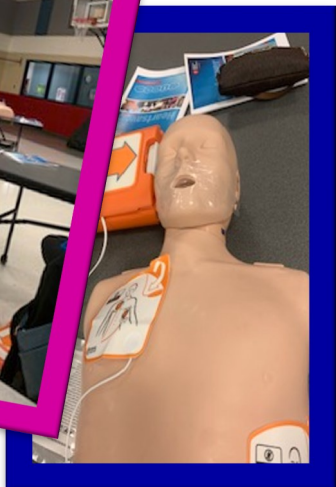

Amelia Mary Earhart was an American aviation pioneer and author. Earhart was the first female aviator to fly solo across the Atlantic Ocean. She set many other records, wrote best-selling books about her flying experiences, and was instrumental in the formation of The Ninety-Nines, an organization for female pilots. Wikipedia

Eisenhower's Readers of the Month Breakfast

Madison's Annual Hispanic Heritage Club took a field trip to the National Museum of Mexican Art on Friday, November 1st, 2019. We went on el Día de los Muertos or Day of the Dead: a cultural tradition celebrated in Mexico that remembers loved ones who have passed away. The students encountered beautiful art exhibits that showcased the amazing cultural art work from Latin America. Afterwards, in our walk to the Mexican restaurant Los Comales, we were able to see all the vivid and impactful murals representing Latino culture. The students had a memorable time! Wonderful job Hispanic Heritage Club!

Taft's Annual Family Reading Night was a big

The Super Reader Night was a huge success. Students and staff came dressed in their favorite Super Hero costume. They read books about Super Heroes; decorated masks and cookies; and made Super Hero crafts. Each student received a book and cinch bag filled with goodies. At the end of the night the Literacy Team held a student raffle and a Turkey Raffle for the parents.

Madison's Annual Family Reading Night was exciting and new. The staff along with the South Holland Public Library shared stories about their favorite book and how they developed a love for reading. Mrs. Foxworth and Ms. Ramos read books aloud to the parents. Mrs. Orth and Ms. Elayyan had a fun time with ECHO reading while Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. McMillan, Ms. Stewart, and Mr. Van Soest demonstrated Choral reading. Assistant Principal Rush read an excerpt from one of her favorite books leaving the audience wanting to hear more. This night was put together by Mrs. Liebner and the Literacy Team.

TAFT

The Phoenix Public Library held their Annual Family Reading Night on Saturday, November 9th at the Hawkins Multipurpose Center. They showed that reading can be fun, profitable, and entertaining. The audience was wowed by the performance of “Those Funny Little People”. In addition to the pizza and goodies, students won bikes; gym shoes made by a former Thornridge student; board games; coats; and much more. The adults had the opportunity to win a 32-inch television. Each student left with a book to enjoy.
