America Recycles Day
Clothes Collections Contest
@Coolidge Middle School

November 1st to November 30th

Cash Prizes for the Top 10 Schools That Participate!

Did you know the average American consumer purchases sixty-six new clothing items per year? The question at hand is are you still using all of them? If not, let's clean out those closets and participate in the America Recycles Clothes Collection Contest! You can bring in your gently used clothes, shoes, and accessories during the contest period to be recycled. Drop them off directly to Ms. Jendrzejak or put them in our recycling bin in the Southwest corner of the staff parking lot on 155th Street.

Let's Win This!

A message from Ms. Brown at Coolidge...

The sixth graders at Coolidge had the opportunity to visit the Field Museum during the month of October. This visit allowed them to experience the things they have been studying in Social Studies up close. They were able to see samples of the clothing, food, shelter and crafts used by the indigenous people of North America.

at Eisenhower

Eisenhower students in Mrs. Gutsch's class participated in guided reading.
